Ken McCort provides private consultations through his Ohio-based business, Four Paws Animal Behavior Services. His many activities include presenting at numerous training and veterinary conferences, developing the Pet Partners skills and aptitude test, and 20+ years with the Doggie Brigade at Akron Children's Hospital. Through projects and educational events at Wolf Park in Battleground, IN, Ken has given many dog trainers unforgettable opportunities to work with alternate species.

Don't miss this unique educational opportunity combining advanced lectures and hands-on training (non-riding) with over 20 horses (ranging from foals to breeding stallions)

- Teach calm cooperative care
- Overcome fear, resolve behavior challenges
- Introduce tack & equipment

Sharon Madere's passion is all things equine: she's a Certified Horse Behavior Consultant (IAABC), a boutique breeder of Iberian horses, rides/trains/competes in artistic Classical riding, and is founder of EquiLightenment. Sharon takes on individual behavior cases, conducts training workshops and wet-labs, and lectures to veterinary students – all with a focus on the principles of learning theory and positive reinforcement to increase safety, enhance higher level performance and improve welfare.
